GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF INDIA RECEIVES e-WORLD 2011 AWARD UNDER "BEST PUBLIC CHOICE AWARD FOR GOVERNMENT TO GOVERNMENT INITIATIVE" FOR THEIR PROJECT 'GSI ENTERPRISE PORTAL'. THE PORTAL HAS RECEIVED MORE THAN 2 LAC VOTES.

Introduction

The eWorld 2011 Awards have been instituted with the primary aim of felicitating and acknowledging unique and innovative initiatives in the use of Information and Communication Technology for Development (ICT4D). These awards would be given away during the eWorld Forum being organised between August 1 - 3 at New Delhi, India.

These awards would be instrumental in promoting the most innovative initiatives in the domain of ICT4D and to spread awareness about the role of ICT in addressing social concerns in the domain of governance and health.

The eWorld 2011 Awards would be given to the distinguished global ICT initiatives in the fields of:

- a) ICT Innovation in Governance
- b) ICT Innovation in Healthcare
- c) ICT Innovation promoting Millennium Development Goals of:
  - i. Eradicating Extreme Poverty and Hunger
  - ii. Promoting Gender Equality and Empowering Women
  - iii. Reducing Child Mortality
  - iv. Improving Maternal Health
  - v. Combating HIV-AIDS, Malaria and other diseases
  - vi. Ensuring Environmental Sustainability
  - vii. Developing a Global Partnership for Development eWorld Awards 2011 will be given under following

eWorld Public Choice Award

Nominated projects will be screened and put online for the public to vote. Projects receiving the maximum number of votes under each category will receive the eWorld Public Choice Award.

eWorld Jury Choice Award

Nominations will be screened by an eminent panel of jury members, who will then choose the best project from each category. The selected project will receive the eWorld Jury Choice Award

The awards for each of the above categories would be given to each of the following regions:

- Asia Pacific
- Africa
- Europe
- North America
- South America

In addition to the above regions, there will also be one 'Global Award' for each category.
